Marjorie Ann Parker

AUG 7, 1939 - JUN 24, 2016

Marjorie Ann Parker
Marjorie Ann Parker, 76, of Culpeper departed her earthly life to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, June 24, 2016 at Culpeper Health and Rehabilitation Center. Marjorie was born into this world on August 7, 1939 in Culpeper County to the late Elmer Parker and late Virginia Mae Parker Carder.

Marjorie retired from C & P Telephone Company where she was a dedicated worker; prior to that she enjoyed working at J.J. Newberry in Culpeper. She will be remembered during this time for her smile and willingness to help others. She was also a member of Culpeper Baptist Church where she sang in the choir and enjoyed the fellowship and church services before her residency at Culpeper Health and Rehab. While at Culpeper Health and Rehab, she continued her faithfulness and attended their church services regularly.

Marjorie is survived by a brother, Roger L. Parker and his wife, Kim; a sister, Brenda Carder Marshall and her husband, Terry; and sister, Sue Carder McDaniel and her husband Bruce. Additional survivors include Marjorie's nieces and nephews: Franklin L. Parker, Jr., Philip L. Parker, Cassandra Parker Scott, Melissa Parker Deal, Mark A. Parker, Matthew B. Marshall and Ashley Marshall Keys.

Marjorie was preceded in death by her father, Elmer Parker, her mother, Virginia Mae Parker Carder, step-father, Russell H. Carder, and her brother, Franklin L. Parker Sr.

The family wishes to express their sincere appreciation to the staff of Culpeper Health and Rehabilitation Center for the love and care they provided Marjorie during her stay.

A funeral service will be held at 2pm on Tuesday, June 28, 2016 at Found and Sons Funeral Chapels 850 Sperryville Pike, Culpeper with the Pastor Wayne Yowell officiating.

I was so sorry to hear of Marjorie's passing! I have known Marjorie for years but did not see much of her in recent years. I always remember going to J J Newberry's and she was always smiling and so helpful and such a valued employee of the phone company too! Thoughts and prayers are with the family!

I send my deepest sympathy from my heart to the family of marjorie parker. I am truly blessed and honored to have known her and honored to call her friend. I can remember when she worked at C&P telephone. Marjorie always enlightned the room when she entered. The way she dressed was so elegant and a true lady. My mother Gracie Baldwin and Marjorie were friends since 1956. When marjorie was at the nuring facility i was able to visit with her and talk and share many memories. I will always cherish those moments. Thank you Marjorie for making a impact in my life down through the years. You will be missed my friend. My love and prayers to all the family...Sincerely, Mark Baldwin Caliandro...God bless....
