So very sorry to hear the sad news of Ann's death. Her husband, Bob, and my husband, John, served living quarters in Viet Nam back in 1969. They have been friends ever since. I was blessed to know Ann through their friendship and we shared our family's lives on face book. She was such a sweet and loving person. Bob and all her family are in our prayers.

I spent a week with Bob and Ann at Myrtle Beach a few years back and I was made to feel most welcome by the graciousness of Ann. We had good conversation and she was always warm and friendly. She has always been one of my favorite people for her love and devotion to Bob. She will surely be missed!

Ann had such a generous heart. I especially remember how she arranged for our troop to visit an Adopted Grandmother at a nursing home. Ann kept on visiting, bringing little gifts and becoming an advocate for the lady, a former stranger. Ann put energy and love into taking those extra steps for other people, and she will never be forgotten. Love to all in the Stanford family at this difficult time, Mary Lou Gramann

I met "Miss Ann" and children in the park in Worcester. She was so friendly and warm that I thought she was some kind of nut case. We exchanged numbers and became good friends. I soon found out she wasn't "truly" nuts but that she was just the friendliest, kindest person I've ever met. Ann leaves a wonderful family and many friends who like myself will remember her kindness, love and generosity. I just wish I could see her one more time. All my warm thoughts and expressions and sympathy to all of her family. She will truly be missed. Love Joyce Nadeau

ANN WAS A GOOD FRIEND AND I WILL MISS HER GREATLY. WE WERE JUST STARTING TO TALK ON FACEBOOK, I REALLY REGRET THAT IT WASN'T SOONER AND MORE OFTEN. ANN YOU WILL BE MISSED BY MANY I AM SURE. So sad to see such an amazing, loving and kind hearted woman has passed away. Mrs. Stanford could lighten a room by walking in it and smiling at you. She also made everyone that she knew feel like part of the family. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother and cared deeply for everyone who came into her life. Mrs. Stanford was a person you wanted in your life, whether it be for a laugh, a hug or just someone to talk to, she was always there. She has definitely made her way to heaven and I know she is watching over her family and guiding them now more than ever. "Angels are like diamonds. They can't be made, you have to find them. Brenda Long lit a candle in honor of Anna.

Hi to you all in the Stanford household. My name is Brenda Long and I grew up since I was 12 years old across the street from Ann. My heart is heavy and I am thinking of everyone who loved her over the years. Wish I could be there to hug each one of you. When Ann first moved in across the street from my family, Ann and I did not get along or even like each other. We didn't even know each other. I didn't care for "slender" Ann as I was always more robust and she didn't like the way "I walked". Needless to say once we got past that Ann became a close friend of mine, Kathy Williams, and Nancy Armbruster. When you saw one of us you saw all 4 of us!!! We were unseparateable!!! Getting into trouble, always....minor silly trouble. The "girls" were always at my house. I had a really cool Mom and Dad who treated all of us as if we were all sisters. Every Friday and Saturday night we would go to the roller rink and have a blast. Ann was lways outgoing, friendly, and kind to ever one she met especially after we learned a very valuable lesson from each other about not judging people on their looks. Gosh could she out skate me!!! Ann is godmother to my one and only daughter, Wendy. In fact it was Wendy who called me a little while ago crying to tell me about Ann's passing. So many happy cherished memories. Of course when I moved away from the area we lost contact. I am self employed. I was always a rebel and opened a sexy lingerie/pleasure products store, which still exists in Tyson's corner. Ann, Kathy, and Nancy have all helped me over the years, each in their ways to keep "my Dream" alive. Even though I have not been a part of Ann's life in the last many years, she never left my heart. I can only tell you that Life is too short. Please Please take the time to connect or reconnect with the people in your lives who have blessed you with their presence!! will miss you Ann,. and may you sleep peacefully. Good night old dear friend.

When I think of Mrs. Stanford, I think of her generosity. In high school, I was close friends with her daughter Angela. During our senior year, my parents moved back to their home state of Wisconsin because of my father's health. I remained in Virginia to finish my senior year of high school. Mrs. Stanford never hesitated to open up her home to me when I needed it, providing me with a sense of the family I was missing. Though this was more than twenty years ago, I will never forget her kindness to me.
