Hi Kyle. I learned of your passing last Thursday when Jonathan posted an update. I was so shocked to hear it. I immediately thought back to being in JROTC with you and riding the bus to Buena with you. We had fun times (even though I was probably the most annoying freshman on that bus lol). You were always nice to me and I always thought you were an awesome friend. You were a wonderful person while you lived and now Heaven will have such a wonderful person in Heaven. I will never forget you because you will always be part of my JROTC family. Thanks for everything, Kyle. Until we meet again, my friend.

I was greatly saddened to hear the news of your passing. The last memory I had of you was learning how to walk in my apartment with your beloved grandmother Marie. May you rest in peace. I know your grandmother will be there with open arms to guide you. XO

Truly sorry for this loss... you father was a great man... saved my life countless times and was an amazing mentor... in a way we are almost brothers since he took care of me while he was away from you...I know you will be in a great place up there. Take care up there and ill catch you up there on the flip side. Much love-
Tony
