I met Donn when my best friend Sandy (Sam) started dating him. What a great guy I told her, he is a keeper. Of course she married him per my recommendation. They were totally devoted to each other.

Donn was a great friend to all who knew him. We will cherish our memories and always think fondly of him. Our thoughts and condolences go with his lovely wife Sandy during this difficult time. Jim and Denise Johnson

My heart goes out to Donn's family. He was a good friend and a wonderful father and husband. Some of my favorite memories are of the times I spent with Donn and Remington doing their favorite pastimes: fishing and hunting.. as Steve would have said: "tight lines"

Goodbye to a great guy. Donn Reynolds was a man's man, hunting, fishing and boating, you name it, Donn enjoyed it. When Donn and Sandy came into our lives in 2007, they were both some of the most fun people we had ever met. Whenever we got together, you could count on good times and lots of laughs. He had his own way of getting things done. Whenever you saw him in his mule, Remi was at his side, with Sandy in the back. I can't help but laugh, just recalling it. Our lives are not nearly as much fun since they moved away from Bracey. Chuck and Susan Reams
