I'm sending wishes of comfort, and prayers for peace and healing, to you, the Brown family. Sonny was a robust man when I first met him in the communications center at the old Naval Space Surveillance System, building 183, back in 1985. Being from out-of-town and out-of-state, it took me a while to get comfortable in my new job. Sonny was one of the people who most made me feel welcome there at Dahlgren, and I have never forgotten. Thanks, Sonny (and family) after all these years. Michael Patrick.

Condolence to family and friends on the passing of your dear beloved Sonny. Death of a dear one is so difficult to accept and brings much pain and grief. We have the assurance from God that he will swallow up death forever and wipe tears from our faces. That is a promise we know for sure will come to pass until that time may you find comfort in wonderful memories shared during happier times. (Isaiah 25:8).
