Sarah Jane “Sally” Fischer, 65, of Fredericksburg, went into the arms of the Goddess on Monday, January 9, 2017.

She leaves behind her loving companion, James Horner, who became a great comfort to her after the passing of her late husband, Leo Fischer; her son, Franklin Moyer; granddaughter, Abigail Moyer; stepchildren, Mary and Albert Fischer; and the many others who considered her “mom”.

Sally’s family will receive friends from 6:00 ~ 8:00 p.m. Thursday, January 19, 2017 at Found and Sons Funeral Chapel, 10719 Courthouse Road, Fredericksburg, VA 22407. A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Friday, January 20, 2017 in the funeral home chapel, with her dear friend, Rev. Yvonne James-Henderson, officiating. A committal service and interment will follow in Quantico National Cemetery, where she will be remembered with her military honors, and laid to rest next to her husband.

Condolences to her family may be shared online at foundandsons.com and flowers can be sent to the funeral home.

Aunt Sally will be missed by the 6 of us in Boise. Fun loving and adventurous is how we'll remember her, as well as generous. She had a huge heart. She loved her family. I now appreciate our visit and lunch with her last October even more. It's interesting how the passing of a loved one will change the perspective of the simplest of events and the people we share them with.

Wow, where to begin my aunt Sally was without a doubt the life of the party. She loved her family and had this outlook on life that was larger than life, she was always smiling, laughing, but she could get raw at times as well. Aunt Sally was a wonderful person and she will be missed very much. But I know without doubt that God has a plan for us all and she is a part of that plan. She has left this world only to begin her journey to everlasting life in the arms of Our everlasting God. And to my family I am sorry for your loss and I pray that God will wrap his arms around you and comfort you all in your time of need. Mary Burns, Virginia Beach, VA

Sally was such a free spirit. So generous, so loving. And funny! She loved a good time and I know she had lots of friends that she enjoyed spending time with. I know I loved to spend time with her. When first meeting her, I just "clicked" with her. It is such a sad thing to think she is gone, I know this is a part of life but its one I wish we didn't have to deal with. Sally, it was too early. I wish you were still here and I'm sad you're gone.
