I miss you so much, Pooh. I think of you day and night. I am lost. Just so lost without you. I wish I could have just a little more time with you. With the option for the rest of my life. I so hope you are happy somewhere. I would give anything for even the worst of moments we had. I now know, It wasnt all that bad. I will always love you, Bear. Your Rich always.

My condolences to you Brittany and your family! I've been thinking about Peggy a lot this last past week and the one thing that stands out in my mind is that radiant smile of hers! Her smile was contagious and she had a big heart! These are the things I will remember most about her. I thank God for the years that she was in my life. I will always love you Peggy, R.I.P. my friend!!!

Oh Peggy... I am so sad. And I will never be the same. You were my life, my love, my best friend, and such a pillar to me. You always figured it out, knew what to do, had the answer, and fixed it too. You made me the man I am today, paved the way, had the answer, and added so much more to it. There will never be a woman who was so in tuned with everything, had the answer, knew before anyone how to fix it. But gave credit to those who came behind and only did what you knew all along. There will never be another Poohbear. I love you, Peggy. I never stopped. And I don't think I will ever be happy in life until I see you again. Thank you Pooh, God knows I will miss you sweetheart. I will so miss you bear...
