Grace, I will always remember your laughter. It was my favorite thing about you. I'm so sad you are gone. You were my dear friend. You did an incredible job at Life. You were so loving and so kind. I'll always miss you and carry your memory in my heart. Whenever my day comes to leave this world, we will get tea in Heaven, and I'm buying. Tell them to leave those gross tapioca balls out though (remember we both got sick from those nasty things). You did such an incredible job in Life. You had so much love for people. You finished community college. You worked hard through school. You worked hard at your studies. You always did your best. You were a strong, courageous fighter. Thank you for your friendship. Thank you for your kindness, and acceptance. Thank you for all the talks and laughter and company. Thank you for teaching me how to enjoy the simple things in life that we so often take for granted: the walks around the city on a sunny day, a hot tea on a cold afternoon, laughter, sharing, conversation. In the midst of my own stress, you were always there, at the drop of a hat, to say "hey, let's just live simple for a moment." Thank you, Grace. I hope you know how much you accomplished in this life. I love you, my dear young friend. I miss you so much. May your soul dance free with our Lord and the Angels.

Meine süße Gracie, du bist jetzt eine Tante. Ich wünschte, du könntest hier sein, um deinen Neffen zu halten!

I am still missing you and remembering you every day. This year I was able to have a little birthday celebration with the boys on your birthday. Love you so much!!!

So sorry for your loss. I still can't believe it is true. I will miss the fun game times we shared and the walks on the beach. You are truly a bright and shining star that will be greatly missed.

Another memory was when we were in a really noisy place, and Grace crawled under a table to get away. I thought she looked like a cute little turtle.

One of the best memories I have of Grace was when she was about 4. She did an adorable dance in the living room that looked like some kind of jig. It was so skillful that I could barely do it myself. How she came up with it is total mystery.

Grace when your Mother married our Son we became instant Grandparents to you and your siblings. We were ready because we had known you since you were babies. Every year we watched you grow - all 4 of you. I will always remember your copper colored hair, it was so beautiful. You were kind and carrying as others described you. You have your wings and everyone knows you will be watching over them. You will always be the brightest star in the sky and in our hearts. Rest in Peace with God. We will truly miss you. My beautiful baby Grace. I miss you SO much! I always told you and your siblings you make me want to be a better person. You certainly did. You are the reason I refused to quit, I wanted you to be proud of me. It is an honor to be your mother. You have taught me so much, but that was why God gave me you and your siblings. You were sent to teach me, not the other way around. I am thankful God let me have you as my child, you have always been a blessing to me. It is difficult for me to let you go. I am grateful I have a recording of your giggle, it was such a sweet sound. I miss you, sweetie. Love you so much, mom.

Grace. I remember your beautiful red hair and your lovely smile. You were always so sweet to us when we met you at your grandparents house. Not every young lady is so comfortable with such a mature group. We are sorry you are gone so soon but know you are at peace with God. Karen and Don Even
