I came to know Midge when our kids fell in love and married. Over the years we shared many special times together. As our grandchildren were born, we became family. She was such a warm loving woman and will be missed by all who were lucky enough to have known her. Sending love to each of her family.

Mom Matthews was like my second mom growing up. Susan and I were almost inseparable during elementary and high school so it was just natural that our families became intertwined. Mom Matthews will be missed and whenever I see a hummingbird I will continue to think of her! Love to all of the family and see you soon. Love, Valerie
