MANA LIZA, the sacrifices you have done for our family is immeasurable and beyond compare. You have never neglected us inspite of having the family of your own. From the very start until you reached from where you are now never have you thought of prioritizing yourself first. You have been our ultimate provider, financier, defender, decision-maker, organizer, source of inspiration and strength, a motherly figure next to Nanay, and a sister whose love and dedication holds no boundaries. You knew exactly even to the smallest details in all of us. How can we forget you? Forever we will be very grateful for all the sacrifices you have done for us. It terribly broke our hearts realizing we are not on your side on your trying moments. All of us cannot contain and compose ourselves that we will be receiving calls and messages no more. But, don't worry we will get there in time. I promise that your legacy will continue with me. You already have trained me. NANAY, MANO ALLAN, MARC and ROI will be fine with us. It is time now for you to have the eternal PEACE you truly deserve. "DAMO nga SALAMAT"

On behalf of my family - Bee, my kids Nyeo and Liam, please do accept our most profound sympathies and condolences. This indeed is a very difficult and trying moment for all of us - a completely and unexpected demise of a very graciously accommodating and supportive woman and mother. Lisa, you'll indeed be terribly missed.

Liza, you will be missed terribly! Our hearts and mind won't know how to fill that void nor to comfort our dear brother and nephews' broken hearts, but know that we will forever cherish your memory and keep you and them in our fervent prayers that somehow God gives us peace and keep you in His kingdom, and provide you with a nice resting place. Till we meet again. Lovingly, Mano Linoy, Mana Melly and family
