Mama Dot as we knew her, was one of a kind. I have missed her being my next door neighbor. I have missed her loving hugs and conversations. Our family was blessed to know her. We are happy she is now with the love of her life, Dick and Her constant strength, Jesus Christ.

I work for State Farm and always enjoys Mrs. Dickinson company when she came into the office. Before Dorothy left I was always given a hug and a kiss on the cheek, and it made my day every time. she reminded me so much of my own grandmother, Dorothy will be truly missed.
