Joseph Levi Fleming

AUG 11, 1994 - OCT 13, 2017

Our beloved son Joseph Levi Fleming died as a result of an overdose. He was 23 years old.

Although this was a heartbreaking end to his earthly walk, this was not his whole story.

Joseph loved the outdoors. Hunting, fishing, camping and exploring the woods were some of his favorite things. He was a creative artist who loved to draw and write stories and create things out of ordinary everyday items. He was a very hard worker but he always had to find a way to make his work environment a little more fun and enjoyable.

Above all else, Joseph LOVED fiercely. There wasn't a friend he couldn't make. He never hesitated to help anyone in need, even if he had just met you. Whether a wounded animal or a wounded human heart, he would do what he could to heal the broken or hurting. He loved to make people laugh and was known for both his big cheesy smile and that mischievous smirk that let you know something hilarious was churning in that mind. Some have said it perfectly "I can't recall a time I didn't see a smile on your face Joseph".

Joseph is survived by his parents John and Dee (Darlene) Fleming; his brothers Ryan, Jacob (and his wife Rebecca), his youngest brother Joshua; his maternal grandmother Marilan Bryant; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless friends.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents Ed and Jean Fleming; his maternal grandfather Robert "Pops" Bryant; his aunt Chrissy Bryant; his cousin Julian Fleming; and most recently his best friend Isaac Dean.

Addiction is an epidemic. Although this is something that Joseph wrestled with, he never would have wished it for anyone else. If you are struggling with addiction, please talk to someone.

I met Joe at his Brother, Jake's wedding to my niece and talked with him about a number of things. He was passionate with the things he spoke of and showed himself to be a very interesting, caring young man. I'm sorry I will not get to know this young man better but my heart and prayers go out to his family

Joe was one of my best friends since I was really little. I remember spending most of my childhood with him and his family. We've stayed really close through the years and I can't believe he's gone. The memories will never be gone though and there will always be a place in my heart that will always have him in it. I wouldn't be the person I am today if it wasn't for him. I love you Joe you will always be my best friend.
