I was fortunate to have met and worked with Mary Anna back in the early 1990's. I'm so sorry I could not be there to pay my respects. She was a caring, kind, loving and generous person. I remember her for the sweet way she treated me, giving me motherly advice and taking me under her wing. May you find comfort in the knowledge that she touched so many lives. I will never forget her. So sorry to hear of Mary Anna's passing. Spent so many times with her as a friend and classmate and always enjoyed her "bubbly personality". She seemed to always have a smile on her face...loved her family! Will surely miss her. Sending love and prayers to the family.
