I was shell shocked when I got the call Friday evening by one of his Co drivers. I have been out with my wife that had got cancer since September. I have kept people in the loop of what has been happening with her. He was one I kept in the loop. He was always thankful to hear she was improving. He always sent his thoughts and prayers for us. I have worked with "Gillie" for years. Now it is my opportunity to send thoughts and prayers to his family. God changed my priorities to help take care of my wife. May God give you comfort during your time of grieving!!!! I know you miss him, but you know you will see him again. Dear Lord please be with "Gillies" family while they are grieving his loss. But help them get through this and let them know they will see him again!!!!
