I remember being 16 years old in Turnbull with William we saw his father's car coming down the road he tried to hide me, Mr. Carter gets out of the car walks over to us and says "you don't have to push your little friend in the bushes William it's ok". He was always very loving and respectful to me from that day forward. He always had a story me a story every time I saw him. Much respect Mr. Carter rest in peace. I will always remember your love and kindness.

Mr. Carter was one of the sweetest and kindest grandparents that I had the honor of helping check out his granddaughter at school. He always showed his love for people each time he came into my office. Rest in peace.

Rest in peace my dear uncle. You will be missed dearly.

Sharon Carter sent a virtual gift in honor of Wallace.

Uncle Wallace, you were always like a father to me. I will always miss you and love you. My strength comes from knowing that you are in heaven enjoying yourself and talking real loud with my dad. Revelation 21:4

I love you Uncle & I'm gonna miss you. No body could tell a story like him. He treated me as his own all my life. He was an elder & truly a very special person. The only way I can get through this is to know that he's not suffering & is resting with JESUS. Family we've got this. ❤️🙏

Uncle Wallace was a man of great patience, understanding and love. He would always call me Annie or sometimes he would call me by my Mom's name Savilla Ann. Whichever name he would say, I knew he would be speaking to me. Knowing that he isn't suffering anymore and he's in heaven with his siblings rejoicing with the almighty God give me joy. To my Cousins and Mrs. Anna: May your heart and soul find peace and comfort. May God's love give you the strength and courage to move forward in life. For a link has been removed from our family but his love and humbleness will always be remembered each day of my our lives. Love to you all Sending all my love, Angie
