I remember you living next door to where I grew up. Your apartment was always so spotless! I would say, "looks like a person could go ice skating on your floors" they would be so clean. I know her pride & joy was her precious daughter, Tonya. We never had a conversation without talking about her. She called me out of the blue one day to ask me to meet her at Wendy's. She wanted to give me something. I met her there & was given a beautiful blanket she had made & a beautiful card telling me how much our friendship meant to her. The blanket was a gift out of love. I have always considered it very special & know now it a treasured gift I will cherish forever. Rest in peace beautiful lady. So many will miss your sweet smile & those cute little freckles of yours. I love you. Give Tonya a hug from me.
