Kendal~ Your mother-in-law led a fulfilling and productive life. I can see why you married her son. Obviously Alice was one of those outstanding women in the mold of your mother and YOU. I regret never seeing you anymore but know you are hugely successful in your work and home life. My sympathy for Alice's passing but my confidence is omnipresent that you will carry on in the tradition- a trait that is of benefit to all you encounter as well as to your immediate family. Love and Blessings!
