Robin, I'm so sorry to hear about your dear mother who died exactly one year after my husband Guy. My daughter & I just got back from England where we took his ashes & so I didn't know she had left this world. Dot's love for her chickens, Woosey in particular, will always be my fondest memory of her as well as her sublime cornbread. And she loved her gardening so much along with her love of family & fur babies. Her gifts will always be remembered in my home due to their having brass plates with her name engraved on them.
