Ms. Kay Kay will be greatly, greatly missed. My son was in one of her preschool classes and Ms. Kay Kay has to be on the kindest and sweetest ladies I have ever known. She used to tell him that she would meet him on the moon with a swiss cheese sandwich (I think I am missing some of the saying, but it was so cute). I loved running into her in the halls of Potter's House. She always had a smile. Teaching and caring for children was definitely her calling. Ms. Kay Kay, you will forever be in our hearts. She fought a long and hard battle. Praying for peace and comfort for your family and may they be comforted by the many wonderful memories they have. God Bless.

I had the privilege of teaching preschool along side Kay Kay for many years. She was a gentle and compassionate teacher, who loved each and every toddler that was in our class, cherishing them as if they were her own. I will miss her thoughtful spirit, always willing to help anyone in need. Rest in peace, sweet friend. - Jennie

Ms.Karen was The BEST babysitter ever - hands down! She took care of Isiah and Zane like they were her own. Isiah still loves cinnamon bread thanks to her. We have so many beautiful memories from her daycare parties. She was family for real! I'm so thankful we got to celebrate with her at her 60th bday party. I pray peace for all her children and grandkids during this time. She will be missed dearly! She's probably doing crafts with the kids in Heaven already ❤️

We adored Miss Kay Kay. I worked at Potted House briefly and my daughter was one of the many that were lucky enough to call her teacher. Miss Kay Kay showed so much love and kindness daily! Such a wonderful person.

The Lord received another angel, Karen. With busy lives we lost track of each other. We reconnected a little over a year ago. It was too short of a time. I will miss you but smile because I know we will meet again my dear friend! Prayers & love to her children and family. Patty Self
