We will always remember the many visits Lewis and Ruby made to Ohio, to visit Ben and Ada Compton. The good stories and laughter made their visit special. We looked forward to the side trips and shopping adventures. The gym set and tractor was a challenge getting it to Virginia. The relationship between our families was so special. Lewis and Ruby will never be forgotten. His loss is bitter sweet. Pam and Rickie are in our prayers. Bill and Sharon Compton

I remember as children Pam and I would wait to see who wore the wildest tie to church on Sunday, Lewis or Clinton Creel (my dad)! He was a good man.

Lewis , Rubylee and kids would come out to Ohio to visit my parents Ben and Ada Compton.What a great time we had but the real reason was all the shopping at many stores , the bargains they would find would fill there car full on the return trip to Virginia. We had a lot of fun with the Hawkins family over the years and a lot of great food .Lewis was a kind man with a good heart who would help you a long with listening and advice.Lewis will be missed even though he is with the love of his life Rubylee and at rest .
