Wanda, we are sending our condolences and prayers to your family. We are so sorry that we could not be there to celebrate Larry's life. Being the youngest of my siblings, I didn't get to know Larry that well, but I sure remember his dad, Uncle Bruce, when I was growing up. He was a fun-loving man and I am sure that Larry shared many of his wonderful traits. We will be thinking of you! Jeff, Mary, Giuliana, Pike, Brian and Nick

Larry was one of the sweetest men I've known. Always smiling, always a gentleman. We had such fun as kids at all our family get togethers. He was a prankster and loved teasing his girl cousins! Such fond memories. Rest In Peace dear Larry ❤️

I worked at David Allen Company and Wanda was my boss. I would always see Larry out in the car waiting for her to come out at 5pm and go home. Sometimes he would come in and sit her in office and he would always come and say hi to me I was at the front desk at that time. Wanda ~ Family I am so very very sorry for your loss. Please know I am thinking of you at this time. Love, JoAnn
