Thank you Tom for loving us like you did ... especially Mom and Austin. You will never know the impact you made in my son's life. We will always celebrate your birthday with his. We will always remember the "debates" you and Austin had hard to believe neither of you were EVER wrong. I will always remember the love and care you gave my mom and seeing you all hold hands in your recliners and hearing you say "I love you Dear". You were one of the most intelligent and loving men I've ever known and I am proud to have called you my Stepdad. You were the best And will always be in our hearts. Love you forever ❤️

As we walked those brick halls at JCHS our senior year "we" were a class from all over the world, from diversified backgrounds and cultures yet without knowing it "we" became a Special Group that would go out and change the world. "We" were not stars to be reckoned with or be recognized "we" were anchors and foundation builders that hold our very nation and families together today. Tom was one of those Special gifts that God placed quietly on this earth to solidify His Will. May Tom rest in peace eternally with Our Father God, In Jesus Name.
