Mickie was the best sister-in-law anyone could have. She was more like a sister. We met when when she was dating my brother, David Gordon Eastridge. I remember Gordon saying he "got the prettiest of the Eubank sisters." All of our family loved Mickie and enjoyed so many good times together - picnics in parks, family reunions, dinners at their home and Mother & Daddy's at Partlow, VA.,, her daughter's weddings and on and on it goes. After Gordon died and later Mickie remarried James Pollard, we loved him like family. Mickie was a special person, filled with God's love for all people. I will think of her and the good times until we meet again in Heaven. Peace , joy and love to all of you. Ann Eastridge (Cannon) Majors
