I'm thankful for the happiness and joy Uncle Charlie brought to me and others over the years. Th memories of all the visits are forever etched on my heart! He loved his family and it showed. As his years increased in number, I remembered those earlier days and wanted to be there for him. I was living close by when he moved into assisted living and visited him when I could. One of the best memories was the visit this past Christmas season when several of us could be with him. I could see the love in his face! I sometimes spent Thanksgiving with him and two of my granddaughters came along with me on occasion. It was a special blessing seeing multiple generations together.
