A few years ago Nicole brought Shirley to my home in Crystal River Fl to spend a few days. While she was here she spent every day on my back porch enjoying all the nature around my home. If you look to the left of my chair you will see a brown stone with shiny pieces that sparkles in it that she had picked up at the beach to bring to me. I love my porch and all the nature around me. it is my peaceful place and everything on the porch is cherished by me. I am thankful that Shirley s in a peaceful , pain-free place and I am thankful she was in my life and always will be. My love to all who loved her and wish all of you peace and wonderful memories. She will always be in our hearts.
