Linda was a great cousin who was so talented, generous and funny. Always in a good mood. She did a great job singing at and catering my wedding. I was very blessed to have such a special cousin in my life. Praying for Chris, kids and grandkids as I know they will miss her dearly

As her sister I've got more memories than any internet site could hold. I will always be eternally grateful to God for sending Linda to be my big sister. She's been an angel and best friend to me for 68 years. And the blessings just kept growing. She fell in love with one of our high school football players, Chris Robertson. They were absolutely made for each other. The love and commitment they have for each other is deeper than any ocean. Then they blessed me with their first child, Michelle. At first Michelle was my little Barbie Doll. She became my 4th daughter and my oldest daughter's best friend. Then came Christopher and Steven. Two of the best sons and grown men that any parent could wish for. I couldn't be prouder of Linda and Chris and all their children – all strong, hardworking, honest, responsible people bonded together by love and commitment to each other. Yep, I'm blessed to have them as my family. Patty
