This picture resembles happiness, love, and togetherness. Ina always brought that to the family. She is tough spirited, but the most sweetest woman you could ever meet. She did everything and anything for her family. When times got rough, she was right there in the battlefield and never backed down. I will forever remember our time together and continue to live by those life lessons you've taught me. To stay strong, and keep pushing to become the best person you can be. Jacob M.

This is so nice Jacob. Thank you for posting. She loved you so much! Her eyes would light up & she always had the biggest smile when she saw you. She told me she loved taking you on her walks as you rode your little tricycle.
