Lawrence was always a 'gentle giant'. I always appreciated as his nephew his gentle and kind manner. As a native of Culpeper, He cared genuinely for the community. He will always be remembered and missed.

I have been the Property Manager at the Meadows of Northridge for 2 years now, and Mr. Jenkins was a bright spot in my day. He was one of the sweetest and kindest people I have ever met. He spoke of his wife every single time I saw him, and he loved and missed her terribly, so I take peace in knowing he is back beside her. I will miss him terribly. Prayers to the family during this time.
