I am so sorry I cannot be there for the memorial service for Norm. My husband and I met Norm and Jean in 1956 and remained friends thru many years. Our children played together and we had many visits at each other's homes. Time has taken it's toll. I am the last of the four of us. I will try to share more of my memories with Karen, Beth and Nancy through this site in upcoming days.

Hey Norm!!!!!! I will miss saying that. You were a delight to know. I was just thinking about you yesterday. I'm sad to know I won't see you again but I know you aren't in pain anymore. You are now one of God's angels. Every time I hear a fiddle I will think of you.
