I don't even know where to begin. I'm going to miss my sister in Christ greatly. I loved visiting with her and Tommy and reminensing of days gone by. Her generosity, prayer life and gentle spirit was a reflection of her walk with Christ. My prayers and thoughts are with you all. Love you all.

My heart is heavy in the loss of a great woman, but it also rejoices to know she is reunited with her love Tommy and with her savior Jesus Christ 🙏 I have great memories of being one of the first 14 children at Open Door to be loved by Joice and her family. The world has lost a beautiful person, but heaven has gained an angel of light. We love you Joice, until we meet again.....💜

Another angel promoted to glory. It is hard to lose our loved ones even though we know we will see them again when the Lord calls us home. Prayers for the family that you will be comforted today and in the days ahead. I know that Tommy met her on the other side of Jordan and hand in hand they saw and worshipped Jesus in a homecoming like no other has ever been. See you soon Joice!Lori PullenMadison, VA
