My deepest sympathy to you Mrs Jackie on the passing of Mr. Sam. He was a person I was glad to know during my informative teenage years. Provided me with insight as I got older and started my own family. He will truly be missed but by no means forgotten. His laughter always brought a smile to my heart. My blessing to Sam and Joann and their families as well.

I don't have many memories of Uncle Sammy but I will always remember spending time with him and all my family at his home in LI. He spoke to me about my Dad and told me that he was sure my father would be proud of me. He shared some of his memories of my dad with me which I have never forgotten. I pray that God comforts All of my family at this time ♥♥♥

When you are warmly embraced and deeply loved by a family, you cannot help but look to the patriarch to see who produced this beautiful family? It took me some years to meet Mr. Walker but I felt like I already knew him when we were introduced at his granddaughter's wedding rehearsal because of how much his family affectionately spoke of him on a regular basis and I felt his warmth immediately. I send my sincerest condolences, prayers of comfort and endurance and love to the Hobbs, Walker, and Porter family and all of his loved ones! Cherish your memories!~From the Kennebrew and Towns family!

Paris sent a virtual gift in honor of Samuel.

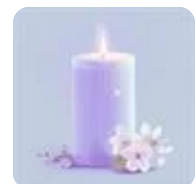

Mr. Wayne and Mrs. Paris Gilr' would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the family. Affectionately known to me (Paris) as Daddy Walker, there are so many fond memories I have that this space could not hold. Although many years have passed, he and Jaqueline "Mommy" Walker have always been in my heart. During this difficult time we can reflect on the laughter and love he showed to so many! He will be forever missed, yet remembered always.

Alice Foley & Mike Bromley lit a candle in honor of Samuel.

St. Teresa of Calcutta would say: "Peace begins with a smile." That's how our interactions would always begin with Sam as he would invite us to come into his home for a visit. That memory left a lasting impression on us and brings a smile to us as we remember it now. Friends couldn't ask for a better gift, except for one: We hope to see Sam again in our eternal Home! God bless you, Jackie, for the lifetime of love you both shared!
