My Aunt Jane left me with lots of good memories while growing up and spending nights at her place. Her delicious baked goods also were fun to enjoy. I'm sure she's enjoying her heavenly home.

We meet Jane for the first time at the wonderful picnic that your family hosted for the residents of Our Father's House at your farm. My husband and I live in one of the cottages and we have just recently been able to visit those in the assisted living because of covid. I loved visiting with Jane and talking with her, we had visited several times since the picnic. Just last Thursday we had talked about getting together soon to visit. God had other plans, so our chats will have to wait now until we meet up in Heaven. Grieve not for Jane, she is breathing celestial air, talking and walking with Jesus, Jane is Home.
