I knew Wayne from childhood when my father was the Utz family's pastor. I was a grade behind Wayne so I ended up with his school books the next year. We moved away in 1964 from Amisville but will never forget Wayne and his family. We spent some Sunday lunches with them. I watched Wayne's service streamlined. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Thanks, Steve. He had many fond memories of your Dad and mentioned often all he learned from him. He had great respect for him. Yes, the years have gone by so quickly.
