M. Angie Rhoads

FEB 4, 1968 - AUG 23, 2021

M. Angie Rhoads, 53, of Fredericksburg, Va., passed away peacefully at her home with her family and friends by her side.

Angie was born in Nuremberg, Germany to Solomon and Cathedia Rose. Her father was stationed in Nuremberg as a Corporal in the US Army, but the family moved to many other duty stations during her childhood. Angie graduated from Spring Valley High, Columbia, SC., and enlisted in the US Army. She was stationed at multiple duty stations before she met the love of her life, Stephen, at Fort Lewis, WA. Angie had achieved the rank of Staff Sergeant by that time. Stephen and Angie were then engaged and transferred together to the Washington, D.C. area in 2008. They confirmed their love in front of God and their families and married on August 22, 2015. She last worked as a Senior Logistics Specialist and Property Book Officer for The Army Aviation Brigade (TAAB) at Fort Belvoir. Angie retired from the US Army in November 2020 as a Sergeant Major.

Her personality was larger than life. She was smart, witty, very classy and beautiful, an extrovert, and had a huge heart for others. Angie would open her home to people and help anyone who needed it. She was giving in all ways and a friend that everyone wanted to have. Above all else, Angie was the hostess with the mostest - she threw legendary parties that will be missed by many.

Angie is survived by loving husband, Stephen; her children, Vanita Charnice Morrison, Marcos Antonio Gonzalez, Grace Olivia Young, and Lillian Noel Rhoads; her granddaughter, Aviyah Michelle Octavia Taylor; her siblings, James Maurice Rose (Julia), Lafechia Rose, Solomon James Rose III (Paola), Demetrice Yvonne Lomperski, and Adrian Armstrong (Audra); her sister-in-law, Wendy Dawn Prater; her father-in-law, S. Joe Rhoads; many nieces, nephews, friends and other loving extended family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and her mother-in-law, Gloria Jeane Rhoads.

Angie's inner light shone bright for all, even for those of us who met her briefly. Stephen raved about her so much and so often that I felt like I knew her before I met her. Rest in peace dear girl. Know that you are missed.

My heart ached to hear the news of my friend SGM Angie Rhodes. My friend, "Ball of Fire" as I called her has lost her battle and finding any words to put here is a struggle! My deepest sympathies to you Steven and the family. One of my fondest memories of Angie is when she and Steven stopped by my office and providing great suggestions to one of my military events. If you knew her, you knew Steven, and if you knew them...you knew they made things happen!! Angie was a "true go-getter/make it happen" type of Soldier, leader, friend, neighbor, spouse, mom, sister!!! She wore the uniform with great pride! She carried herself with much respect in and out of the uniform. I was so honored when she invited me to her "Passing of the Torch" event! My friend was such a humble woman who gave of herself unconditionally. She lived the Army Values and I was fortunate to call her my Battle Buddy! Angie I know you are looking down keeping watch over us. Know we will take care of Steven and the family. Don't give God too much sass...he had the last word and we are doing our best not to question it. Until we meet again my friend, rest easy....we will take it from here! Heaven received an awesome Angel!

Angie was an angel here on earth. I'm gonna miss her tremendously, yet I'm so thankful she had a life full of love, her career success, and a wonderfully supportive husband and family. I'm also thankful that she was in the arms of her beloved as she left this world and into the arms of her Savior Jesus Christ. See you soon sister
