I am very saddened by the passing of your Mother and my families close friend. John, with Joyce, were very influences in my repentance and return to the Lord at Parkwood Baptist Church in Fairfax. The were primary factors in our move to Culpeper and Culpeper Baptist Church even supported by Sunday School teaching. I have, unfortunately, been able to visit Joyce one or two times since she moved to The Culpeper but have prayed for her peace and well-being many nights. May God be with you during this period of grief and into the future. Paul Reeves, with memories of Peggy who would have shared by thoughts about great friends.

Joyce was a delightful lady. I knew her and John when we were together in the ACTS Sunday School Class at Culpeper Baptist Church. They were both good thinkers, and it was fun to engage either or both in conversation. May she rest in peace now.
