Ronnie Clifton Plaster

JUN 6, 1943 - FEB 3, 2022

Ronnie Clifton Plaster, 78 years old, went to his heavenly home on February 3, 2022. Just like he dealt with all experiences in life, Ronnie managed his illness with prayer, strength, and grace. He spent as much time with his loved ones as possible, and on his final days he was surrounded at home by his children and grandchildren, who he adored more than anything else in the world.

Ronnie was born in Richland, Virginia and was the son of Clifton and Gladys Cordle Plaster. He graduated from Honaker High School in 1961. He also graduated from Newport News Ship Building Apprentice School in 1967. Ronnie was an inventor and in 1978 he developed an automatic coal car coupler. On November 11, 1980, the United States Patent and Trademark Office granted him a patent. Ronnie retired in 2006 from Ross Industries in Midland, Virginia.

He served as deacon and Sunday school teacher for 38 years at Mount Lebanon Baptist Church. He spent his retirement years passionately trimming and pruning his grape vines and fruit trees. He enjoyed tinkering on anything and everything he could get his hands on. He also enjoyed working along with his wife out in the yard just as much as he enjoyed working side by side with his son Seth building furniture. When he'd finally come in the house to rest it was to eat a home cooked meal, study for his next Sunday School lesson, or watch the services that his son Brian helped produce for The Bible Chapel Pittsburgh.

He is survived by his wife, of 57 years, Earlene Musick Plaster, his oldest son Brian Clifton Plaster, his wife Kim and their two children, Connor and Addison Plaster of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; his youngest son Seth Daniel Plaster, his wife Shelly and their four children Sarah Beth, Anna Belle, Amelia Kay, and Alistair Lockhart Plaster of Culpeper, Virginia.

Ronnie is also survived by his siblings, Jimmy 'Sonny' Plaster and his wife Betsy of Raven, VA; John Plaster of Lewisburg, WV; Jackie Plaster and his wife Arlene of Rosedale, VA; Dickie Plaster and his wife Donna of Cedar Bluff, VA; Patricia Bailey and her husband James of Cedar Bluff, VA; and Gary Plaster and his wife Delana of Cedar Bluff, VA.

Earlene, Brian, and Seth, I know without a doubt in my heart that Ronnie is present with our Lord. But it makes me so sad that his presence will be gone from our extended family. Ronnie was the first of my many cousins from an extended family stemming from nine children. (Our mothers, Gladys and Billie were sisters from those nine children.) Being one of the later cousins, my earliest memories of Ronnie, was of a tall, handsome, grown man with dark hair and a pretty wife. When I grew up, I realized he wasn't really that tall, but he was still a handsome man with nice hair and a pretty wife. I remember them being nice to me and I always enjoyed our family visits with them until they moved away from Newport News. Since those many years ago, I mostly saw Ronnie and his family at our Cordle Family reunions. There he would always make a point of saying hello and inquiring about my life. My mom spent a lot of time around Ronnie when he was a young child and he held a special spot in her heart. She always appreciated the time he gave her at those busy family reunions. It was the occasion of his mothers funeral when I had the first privilege of hearing Ronnies gift of speaking from the heart. I recall what a lovely and touching tribute he offered to our family on that sad occasion. Just a few years ago, he was so gracious to offer the eulogy for his uncle Bob. And I'm sure there have been others. Knowing he was a long-time Sunday School teacher, it makes me smile to know how many lives and hearts my cousin has touched with his gift of words and wisdom. Anyone who has ever heard Ronnie share from his heart and his Savior is the richer for it. He will be missed. To God be the glory, Pam Griffith Kitchen
