I only just found out about Dorothy's passing and wish to send my sincere condolences to her family. She and my mother, Joan Savee Kulp Woody were cousins. Mom always spoke fondly of her and they shared a love of flowers. I am sure she will be reunited with her beloved Forrest. Rest in peace.

Deepest sympathy to all. I know Dorothy has found another flower garden to enjoy. We will all miss singing happy birthday to her at our next luncheon and I'll miss the great fun we had getting together after 60 years and celebrating "Elvis" music with Randoll. I will continue to cherish the portrait drawing you did of me in 9th grade. You'll be missed by the class of 1960. Classmate Lorraine Garrison Early
