My condolences go out to the entire family. Carlos was a great man full of ideas, ambitions, love, and laughter. He was the type of man that would take the shirt off his own back if he knew someone needed it. He always found the good in others and knew how to make a person feel welcomed and part of his family. He definitely made a big impact in my life and I wish I can be viewed as or become half the man that he is. My most enjoyable memory with him that makes me crack a smile all the time that I will never forget would have to be the times spending "Guys Night" at the house once in awhile with Carlos and his sons which consisted of a Saturday night watching boxing while enjoying big steaks cooked on the outdoor grill and indulging in all types of conversations and debates. Carlos, I love you like a 2nd father to me and I want you to know that you will truly be missed and constantly thought of. God has gained another angel. God Bless. - Rafael Jr. Rodriguez

My condolence to the entire Family, my prayers are with each one of you. I was very privilege of not just knowing Carlos but also to have been mentor by him, I remember all the jobs that I did with him and how he thought me how to use the Freon to recharged the AC units that we worked on. Also remember how He always treated me like a son and teaching me how to check the car and fix the brake pads. I had some great talks with Carlos and I always looked up to him, I am sorry that I didn't get to spend more time and that He never made it to Hawaii to visit me, but I am always carrying him in my HEART. Thank you so much Carlos for been my friend and mentor, Love you and will miss you until I see you again in our Father's Kingdom. R.I.P. Carlos Vladimir I. Hidrovo-Alban

The pleasure was mine,Wow what a great Man, and Carlos was all man, father, grandfather, husband and friend--he loved everyone and shared what he could with all of us. Life is full of laghter, love, successes and disappointments and Wanda and Carlos experienced them all, and endured them all, and still made it up during the day with a smile and a hug for all of us. I feel so fortunate to have known the both of them and their children and to work each day with Wanda. We shared a lot of memories of the 47 years they spent together and laughed a alot. I hope that the family will do the same. Carlos loved all of his children, grandchildren and his wife, and also people he did not know, but gave unselfishly to the church and those who needed assistance. I know God is holding him close and giving him duties to take care of with his new assignment with the Lord. You all have a new Angel watching over you.Love all of you and Carlos will be missed, be strong for him,Emily and Dan BaumgartnerPS: and this is Dan's message to Wanda and family--he was a Veteran and a Marine, and I was proud to have met him and would have been proud to serve with him...I really want to be there for his interment ceremony and hope I can join you on Friday for his Service...I have something I would like to give him. Wanda--told you the other night we are family and I meant it. never forget that:) love, Dan
