Our most sincere sympathy in the loss of your devoted wife, Janet! We have had the pleasure of being your neighbors for a few years now. It was always a pleasure to have a conversation with Janet, as she was always so pleasant. We shared the love of our grandchildren. My Amanda, who has special needs, always thought she was just so nice! That always meant the world to us. If you need anything, we are here to help. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers! RIP Janet! May God be with you all! Chuck, Wendy, & Amanda Harrison

Charlie, Robert and I are very saddened for the loss of Janet. I met her many years ago thru working with her mom from my job at Com of Rev's office at Stafford. We continued being friends since then. Then you and Robert worked together. She has struggled for years with medical issues. She is no longer struggling! Please let us know if you need anything. Prayers to your family especially her grandchildren that shared your home. Sincerely, Robert and Linda Gillispie
