Nancy Mae Brown

APR 17, 1931 - APR 18, 2022

Nancy Brown (née Price), daughter of Guy Price and Ida Price, wife of Clarence Brown, Sr, and beloved sister, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully at her home on April 18, 2022 after a long illness. She was 91.

Mrs. Brown was born on April 17, 1931 in King George, VA. At a young age she moved with her family to a family farm in Falmouth, VA in Stafford County. She had 13 brothers and sisters, and all helped work the family farm. After graduating from Stafford High School, Mrs. Brown worked for a short time at Arlington Hall for the Department of Defense in Arlington, VA. While working there, she met her husband Clarence. After marriage, Nancy and Clarence moved to the Washington DC area. Mrs. Brown became a home-maker, and she and Clarence raised four children, two sisters and two brothers.

In the early 1970s, Mrs. Brown, Clarence, and her family moved back to Stafford County to be closer to her family. At that time Mrs. Brown began a long career with Stafford County Schools, first as a bookkeeper at Stafford Middle School, and then assisting with the management of the school buses for the entire school system. Mrs. Brown retired in the mid-1990's, respected and beloved by all with whom she came in contact. In her off-hours, Mrs. Brown was very active with family. In one instance, she became a very successful and respected Little League manager for two of her grandchildren in Stafford County when no other manager could be found. All of her players knew her for her supportive hugs, while the opposing managers respected her knowledge of the game.

After retirement, Mrs. Brown remained very active with family, as well as annually working her vegetable and flower gardens. She also loved rooting for and watching the Washington football team and the Washington Nationals baseball team. Clarence pre-deceased Mrs. Brown in 2017, but she continued to be very active and spry.

Mrs. Brown is survived by two sisters, Jean Price Toombs and Ida Price Davenport, both of the Fredericksburg, VA area; one brother, Roy Price of King George, VA; two daughters, Cindy Jones

I want to express my sympathy to the Brown family. I have been Mrs. Browns neighbor for many years. We loved her dearly and will miss her so much. May you all find comfort in the wonderful memories you shared with her. I cherish the good times we shared, the hugs she gave my son as he grew up and my granddaughter as she would run across the yard to give her hugs. I know she is at peace as she is reunited with her husband, Brownie. Keeping you all in my prayers. Anne Hart
