Morris Walton Peters

MAY 29, 1937 - MAY 28, 2022

On May 28, 2022, one day shy of his 85th birthday, Morris Walton Peters' calls to go home were answered and his precious spirit was reunited with his heavenly family.

Morris graduated from Culpeper High School in 1956. Prior to his family moving to Culpeper in 1946, he attended a one-room school in Scott County, Virginia, where he was born. Morris relished reminiscing and sharing memories from his childhood of being born in the Appalachian Mountains.

After graduation, Morris moved to Baltimore where he began his career with the Baltimore Police Force. After his retirement from the police force, Morris and his family returned to Culpeper to live. Morris' great pride in and patriotism for our country was reflected in many ways, including his 42 years in the US Army Reserves, from which he retired as a 1st Sergeant.

Awaiting to welcome Morris' spirit's transition were his parents, Robert Leonard Peters and Ethel Mae Osborne Peters; his sister, Evelyn Royer; his brother, Franklin Jennings Peters; and more recently his brother, Raymond Leonard Peters; his half-brother, Palmer Gillenwater; his daughter, Laura Lee Peters; his son, Matthew Walton Peters; as well as several nieces and nephews, in-laws, and friends.

Surviving to cherish their precious memories of Morris are his devoted wife, of 62 years, Carryl Greenstreet Peters; his brother, Robert E. Peters; sisters, Helen Smith and Mary Hawthorne, granddaughters, Victoria Lee Hunter, Kimberly Hunter Banks; his grandson, Joshua Quinton Peters; seven great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Morris will be remembered for his sense of humor, his innumerable and extended stories, his love of auctions, antiques and land. A quieter and lesser-known part of his life was his generosity and personal care for those less fortunate and in poor health.

Darrell and I were very sad to hear of the passing of Morris. He was a kind and humble man. We will miss seeing him when he visited his family near us and he always had time to stop and talk to my husband or myself. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family! Darrell and Brent Payne

We are grateful for the memory of one who first greeted us at the door of Culpeper Baptist Church, ushered us to the JOY Sunday School class, worshipped with us for years, brought us turnips from his garden and talked with us for hours with stories from his illustrious past, and of his loving wife, Carryl. My home-baked cake and Reuben sandwiches were his delight. A big man in statue, a big heart for mankind, he will be sorely missed as a man of God in our neighborhood and Culpeper community. May his wife and family find God their real source of comfort in their grief and in the years ahead.

I am so very sorry to learn of Mr. Peters passing. He was a gentile man who really liked to tell his stories. I never met the gentleman until he stopped by my home for a yard sale and we started talking. He seemed to be a gentle giant with a big heart. So very sorry for the loss to the family. May you be comforted at this time. Lori PullenMadison, Va.
