David and Nancy, I am so sorry for your loss. You know I have way too many memories to pick one. Aunt Sis and Uncle Pat were very special to the entire Reams family and your Mom was always wonderful to my husband, Paul. I loved to see Aunt Sis and my Mom gossiping about anything and everything. They were a hoot together. All my best to the entire Johnson clan. Our condolences, Paul and Laura Fitzgerald

Ms. Frances-Wright was such a tremendous joy! The first time I ever met her, Patrick drove us up to her house in Culpeper and we spent the day having lunch and browsing the shelves of the Dollar Tree. As Patrick was getting the car ready for us to head home, she leaned over to me and said, "You see that boy? He's special. You better not break his heart." I will never forget that moment. I leaned back toward her and promised I never would. Here we are years later and we're married! Another of my favorite memories with her is when she and I spent the day together shopping at Michael's for Easter wreath supplies. We went back to her apartment and I made her a wreath while she sat and told me stories about her dad and brother. At Sunday dinners at David and Sharon's house, she would always comment on how large my water bottle was. I'm drinking extra for her today. I am definitely missing this sassy, kind-hearted woman!
