Today, during a discussion with my son, Brian, I found out about your passing. Memories of you are electric...as in sparkling eyes, radiant smile, radiant energy that was contagious to all around you, along with a headstrong personality without a spec of malice, ever. You were considered as a big sister to my daughter, Annie, when she was a child, and I was grateful for that. I am also grateful that I got to meet and know you within my lifetime, I will be forever blessed! God bless you, Terri, and may His forever light shine upon you and His arms forever hold you in His eternal embrace.

I am so sorry for your loss. Terri was a very kind and caring mom to all of our sons that spent time at home. She was supportive to my son in times of need, caring for him when the pandemic hit, never turning him away. She took him in, without hesitation, when I was sick. Heaven is gaining a kind and loving spirit for sure. Kathie Scotten Sequeira
