I met you as your little sister's (Ashley) best friend and from that day forward you treated me like a sister of your own. Growing up with your family was one of the biggest blessings in my life. No matter how long was spent in between interactions the love between us all remained the same. I'm grateful to know all of you. Your smile was infectious and your spirit was bright. You will be deeply missed, Erik. God rest your soul ❤️

Erik I have known you for approximately 10 years and would always tell you mom how helpful you were. If anyone needed anything you were the first to know. Your mom loves you dearly and would talk about you constantly. You were Kind, caring, empathic and always worried about others (probably inherited from your mom). Ride high on angels wings and enjoy the total freedom and undescrible love you now feel. You may had have been rich in money and things but rich in the qualities that cause Heaven's Gates to open WIDE. You are very much in the heart especially those that hurt the most and loved the most (your family). Until we meet again.....John
