This girl... I have no words I have known her since I was in the seventh grade at All Saints. She would tease me and work me... As we grew up together, we were really close in high school. When she graduated her mom and dad bought her a Ford escort and unbeknownst to her parents we would drive up to George Mason and drive illegally in the quad. We would laugh our asses off, listening to the boom box with cassette tapes in it. And our favorite thing to say was I opromise, Which meant "I promise " her mother, Susan, took on one of my puppies... I'll bichon frise.... And I will always remember all the crazy fun times at law's auction... I will also remember when I moved to San Antonio I stopped at Mary Baldwin, to say goodbye to her. we had just amazing times together... The battle of the bands I mean I could go on and on. She was a very special girl to me. I hate that we did not connect later in life because of, well life. . But I will always treasure the memories that we had together.
