Ron was one of the best friends a new teacher could have. All our adventures, trips, games, dinners, picnics, and just 'sittin and 'sippin are etched in my memory forever. Ron had a quick wit that kept me and others laughing. We played tennis early in the morning and then again early in the morning at the back end. There were beach trips with the families and before families. Weekends in the mountains, and just enjoying all we had in common. His love for Elizabeth and the girls took priority over everything else. That love was endless. I could go on and on but don't need to. You were always so loyal and kind to all. I drink to your memory! Cheers!
