Bobby and Patsy have been my neighbors since I moved next door to them in 2015. I would go over and chat with both of them. Oh how he loved to sit on the front porch and wave. Since Patsy has been ill for awhile and not home he would just talk about missing her. I only found out about his passing today and I informed another neighbor who have been friends with both Bobby and Patsy. My heart breaks and hopefully I'll see Patsy again. Bobby kept me informed on how she was doing.

The Lane Family, Thoughts and prayers to the family 🙏. Growing up around Bobby and his mother Ms. Virginia was the best days ever!!! Bobby was full of life! Every time I see his sister's I would ask about him. He was my " Donkey Kong" back in the day. He was so good to us kids growing up. We had the best times. He was family. I knew Bobby for over 40 years. One of my best memories of my childhood was living near him!! One of my favorite people ❤️ I just hope he does know what a impact he made on us kids growing up. He was a great cook. His momma taught him well! He didn't know a stranger!! You were always welcomed. His mother was the same way! Great famiy. ❤️ I miss them both. My heart is breaking ❤️🙏🥰 I had just ask Pat and Rosalee how he was they said he was in the rehab. I wanted to get out there to see him an now it's to late!!!! Rip and fly high!! ❤️ I remember when I dated Billy. He lived next door to Bobby. Billy had a blue Nova and Bobby had a gray Nova. I can see him coming down the street now!!! ❤️ Will see you again one day!!! Rip Uncle Bobby. (Mudcat) A good man gone but never forgotten!! Will all miss you!!!
