So many great memories, just don't know where to start. Jeffrey loved when I visited, because he enjoyed my cooking and he had a shopping list already prepared of his favorites. Fried pork chops and the works. He was ever so excited and wore a smile of gratitude always and loved the fact that there was plenty leftover food for the next day. (I planned it that way.) 😊 Now that Jeffrey's spirit is soaring in heaven, he'll forever be satisfied for eternity. I'm happy for you Jeffrey that you suffer no longer and are rejoicing with sooo many of our love ones and finally get to hang out with Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, even though our hearts are broken from missing your earthly presence. It's not goodbye, it's see ya later my loyal friend and BIL Love ya much! 🍷☐

This one hits Real HARD! ❤️ Our hearts are shattered, but nothing compares to the pain my Sis Tina, and their boys, Lucas, Jonas, and the grandkids are feeling. I am here for you all and covering each of you in prayer. Wooden came into my life when I was 11....he gave me my 1st taste of Malt Duck Liquor, always the one to say Tighten Up RoRo! (when I acted a fool, age 12-14)....he taught me to do the "bump", he was always my dance partner throughout the years, his smile and laughter always contagious.... I know he is finally at Peace with his Mama & Daddy, and I'm certain he and My Momma are talking about how much he missed her fried chicken and collard greens telling her mine were never as good as hers. I Love him, always have, always will!
