Peggy was a angel. We all loved her. She was a big part of my life growing up. My dad and her worked together for many years at Arringtons. It was the best years. Peggy an I were very close then. I would see her in the mornings an in the evenings after school. She was the best seamstress ever! I would go in an help her after school. My mom loved her so much. She would call my mom ditty witty, where that came from , I don't know, but they were real good buddies. I miss those days so much. Her and Ray were awesome together. He was such a great guy. He adored Peggy. I know they are together again. True love. ❤️ I'm going to miss her very much. I wished we had got to go to lunch, but it didn't happen. Until we see each other again. I love you. Rip Peggy. Thoughts and prayers to Peggy's family.
