Rodney was a great friend through school our days playing football were a lot of fun as we spent hours together and game days we made opponents cringe as he'd come from one side and i from the other. Brothers of destruction. Just talked with him a month ago and he and I laughed for hours about life and love etc. brother you were loved here on earth and lived a good life. Rest in peace until we meet again.

To say you were my best Friend is an understatement. I find it hard to understand why you're gone. You were the one person who no matter what crisis I had were there. You saved my life 4 years ago driving hours to pick me up and take me to uva. You are the reason my children still have me. You always told me it was your love for me that kept me here and you were so right. I love you and I am not sure how to live in this life where you are not in it. You were always there and were the one I could tell anything to and you knew everything about me. I hope you're looking down and know how much you are loved and missed. Till we meet again I hope my Daddy is up there keeping you company. Rest now I know I have a guardian angel looking down on us all
